Porchfest Coming to Oshkosh Sept. 13

Porchfest ??? According to Dean
Sauers, it's an informal music festival,
a word of mouth nationwide phenomenon
that began when two women in upstate
New York were playing music on a porch and a passerby was invited to join in.

The Sept. 13 Porchfest is sponsored by 50% Folk, a group that you've seen perform at Green Apple events. Admission is free.
The music starts at 1:00 and continues on into the evening. In addition to 50% Folk,
the lineup includes Mike and Karen Cove,
Doug Wheeler, Terry Dawson, + Steve Hazell.
As of this writing, there's still room for more performers.

The porch is located in the back of Mark
Bradish's home 1219 Bayshore Dr., Oshkosh.
Bring your own lawn chairs and refreshments.
Call Mark at 920-716-2745 for more info.

Annual Meeting (continued from page one)

Harmony Cafe is limited in space and closes at 9:00 Sat. nites. Should we do shorter hoots, start earlier, look for a different location? The possibility of using the Fox Valley Unitarian Fellowship for some events is being discussed.
So, bring ideas, opinions, instruments, voices, food, beverage + place setting for some music and fellowship on Sept. 27. Hope to see you there.

Dead Horses in Concert

Oct. 18 7:30

Mosquito Hill

$8.00 Members

$12.00 Non members

Don't let the name fool you - these musicians are very much alive and full of energy. Their website describes the group as a promising young folk-grass band, formed in 2010, based out of Oshkosh, but drawing top musicians from all over the state.

Dead Horses recently recorded a new album, "Space and Time," in San Francisco at the legendary Hyde St. Studios. (Used by Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young, James Brown, Grateful Dead.)

It's set for release on Oct. 14.

How's that for timing?

See you on October 18th !!!
